- According to the Affidavit of Complaint, on 12/28/11 at approximately 7:30 p.m. in Memphis, a female named A. Johnson was walking near her residence when she realized that this defendant, who was unknown to her, was following her. The complainant indicated that the defendant pushed her and held her up against a building, whereupon he fondled her breasts and genitalia through her clothing. The victim then reportedly pushed him off of her and ran away. The defendant was located a few minutes later by nearby security officers and then detained briefly by police. The defendant was released at that time after police transported him to his residence. However, after further investigation by Memphis Police, a warrant was issued and the defendant was arrested for this offense on 1/20/12. This case is pending in Shelby County Courts.

* - According to the Affidavit of Complaint, on 10/21/12, the defendant, an inmate in the Shelby County Jail, committed Aggravated Assault, in that with a razor, the defendant assaulted and/or attempted to assault another inmate. The defendant was arrested for this on 10/22/12 and this matter is pending before Shelby County General Sessions Court.

* - According to the Affidavit of Complaint, on 10/21/12, the defendant, an inmate in the Shelby County Jail, committed Assault-Offensive Contact, in that the defendant touched a female nurse on the buttocks with his hand. The defendant was arrested for this on 11/5/12. On 11/8/12, the defendant pled guilty in Shelby County General Sessions Court and was sentenced to 6 days imprisonment.
